

Personal Information

Name:

Ahmed Hussein Abd El-Rahman Adam

Nationality:

Sudanese

Marital Status:

Single

Occupation :

Assistant Professor, Department of Archaeology,
University of Khartoum

E-mail address:

ahmedaba77@yahoo.com

Tel:

00249- 912866971

Academic Qualifications

- 2009: Ph.D.- Thesis Entitled “Makouria Kingdom and its Civilization: New Perspectives Based on New Archaeological Finds”, Department of Archaeology, University of Khartoum, Khartoum, Sudan.
- 2005: M.A. Thesis entitled “Material Evidence of the extension of the Fung Kingdom between the Third and Fourth Cataracts Region”. Department of Archaeology, University of Khartoum, Khartoum, Sudan.
- 2000: B.A. (HONS), Grade Two Division One. Thesis entitled “Political condition in Sudan after the fall of the Makouria Kingdom and before the creation of The Fung State 1317- 1504 AD”, Department of Archaeology, University of Khartoum, Khartoum, Sudan.

Work Experience

- 1- 2010: Member of Research and Academic Development Committee, Faculty of Arts, University of Khartoum.
- 2- 2010: Supervisor of Fifth Year Students, Faculty of Arts.
- 3- 2009: Assistant Professor, Dept of Archaeology
- 4- 2005: Lecturer, Department of Archaeology Faculty of Arts, University of Khartoum.
- 5- 2003: member of Editing Board of Faculty of Arts, University of Khartoum Guide Book.

6- 2001: Teaching Assistant, Faculty of Arts, University of Khartoum

Field Work Experience

1- Member of the Archaeological and Heritage Survey of the Third Cataract area; a participating Member for Nine Seasons. April 2010.

2- The Field Deputy Director of the Red Sea Project Between the University of Khartoum, the National Corporation for Antiquities and Museums, and the British Institute of East Africa. January 2010.

3- Member of Al-Gaab, West of Dongola Depression Archaeological Survey Project. December 2009.

4- Conduction of a comprehensive Archaeological Survey of Gezira Aba. January 2009.

5- Participation in the Project of Archaeological Survey for Assessing the Antiquities of the Second and Third Cataract Area for the execution of Dal and Kajbar Dams, June 2008.

6- Deputy Field Director for Khandaq Archaeological and Social Development Project, March 2008.

7- Participation in the Project of Archaeological Survey of Kareema-Nawa Highway, August 2007.

8- Responsible Since for the Field Training (Advanced Excavations) for 4th year students, department of Archaeology, University of Khartoum. February 2007.

9- Joint Responsibility Since for Management of Cultural and Archaeological Sources field Training for 5th year students, department of Archaeology, University of Khartoum. January 2007.

10- Responsible for Field Work (Archaeological Survey and Basic Excavations) for the 3rd year students, department of Archaeology, University of Khartoum. June 2006.

11- Participating Member in the White Nile Archaeological Survey and Salvation Excavation Project for Three Seasons. May 2006.

12- Participation in the Project of the Archaeological Survey and Rescue Excavation of the Antiquities of Kerma-Argin pipe Line Between University of Khartoum and the National Corporation for Antiquities and Museums. 2003.

13- The Field Deputy-Director of Khartoum University Project, the National Corporation of Antiquities and Museums, and Wadi Al-Neel University: Archaeological and Cultural Survey of the Fifth Cataract Area. 2002.

Job- Related Academic Activities

A) The Courses and Subjects I Teach in the Department of Archaeology, University of Khartoum:

- 1- Medieval and Post-Medieval Archaeology.
- 2- Techniques of Archaeological Survey and Excavations.
- 3- Introduction to the History of Archaeology.
- 4- Introduction to Sudanese Archaeology.
- 5- The Methods and Techniques of Archaeology.
- 6- Ancient Civilizations (Africa-Asia-Europe-the two Americans).
- 7- Museums.

B) Egyptology.

C) Academic Activities and Lectures in other Universities:

- 1- Methods and Origins of Sudanese Culture.
- 2- Islamic Arts and Antiquities.
- 3- Islamic Kingdoms in Sudan and Africa.
- 4- Ancient and Middle History of Sudan.

Research Projects

- Participation in the Field Works of Graduate Studies and B.A. Students.
- Supervision of Undergraduate Researches in the University of Khartoum, Shendi University, and Dongola University.
- Presenting a Proposal for Building a Museum for the University of Khartoum (Already Under Execution Now), and a Proposal for museum for the White Nile State (endorsed).
- Honorary Appointment in Exeter University, United Kingdom from Aug 2011, Research project Entitled: Balfour Paul's Writings and their importance in Archaeology and Ethnography of Sudan.

Administrative Experience

- Coordinator of Academic and Research field work in the Department of Archaeology.
- In Charge of Financial Affairs of the Departmental field work.

Academic contribution

a) Published:

1. A paper Entitled: Archaeology Evidence of Arabic and Islamic Calligraphy in Sudan: The Journal of Arab Archaeologists Conference, Cairo 2008.
2. The Cultural Significance of North Fung Region, Adab Journal, University of Dongola, 2010.
3. The Archaeological and Historical Significance of Old Dongola Site. The Journal of Arab Archaeologists Conference, Cairo, November 2009.
4. The Material Culture of Fung Sate. , Adab Journal, University of Khartoum, 2011.
5. Sources of Studying the Medieval Period in Sudan. Adumatu Journal. kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Riyadh. January 2011.

b) Unpublished:

1. The Role of Archaeology in National Education.
2. The Physical Evidence of the Expansion of Fung between the Fourth and the third Cataracts.
3. Towards on Approach for Studying the Medieval Period and Post-Medieval Period in Sudan.
4. Water Management in Ancient Periods (Wadies and Hafirs for examples).
5. The archaeological and historic of Agig port- eastern Sudan.
6. Excavation at Shafa'i Mosque – Suakin
7. The archaeological Evidence for medieval period in eastern Sudan

8. Management and protection of archaeological sites Case study Nauri site.

conferences and symposia

2010: Conference of Arab Archaeologists – Tripoli – Libya.

2010: Conference of the Archaeology and the environment in the Arab world Al-Jouf – Saudi Arabia

2009, 2008, 2007: Conference of Arab Archaeologists – Cairo – Egypt.

2007: Suakin archaeological work shop – McDonald Institute for Archaeology – Cambridge – UK.

2005: Conference of the Fung Sultanate of five hundred years to establish the Sultanate –Blue Nile state- Damazine – Sudan.

Attended Conferences

- Seminar The Nile Basin Research Program – University of Khartoum University of Bergin, Norway – Khartoum – June 2010

- The Ottoman frontiers – the British Academy – London 2007.