

Personal Information

Name: Elwasila Saeed Elamin Mohamed

Date of Birth 13/10/1969; Place of Birth: Sudan

Nationality: Sudanese; Mother Language: Arabic, Fluent in English with fair knowledge of Norwegian language

Marital Status: Married with children

Address for Correspondences:

University of Khartoum

Academic Qualifications:

Academic Qualifications:

Undergraduate (University) Education:

BSc. (Honors, First Class) in Economics (April 1992-November 1996) University of Khartoum, Faculty of Economic and Social Studies, Department of Economics. B.Sc. Dissertation "Devaluation of Sudanese Currency and its Impacts on Sudan Agricultural Exports."

Graduate Education

1- MSc. in Environmental and Development Economics (August 1998-June 2000) University of Oslo, Department of Economics, Norway, with full scholarship from the Norwegian Quota Programme of Scholarships. MSc. Dissertation "Trade Liberalization, Greenhouse Gas Emission and River Flooding Impacts in Africa."

2- M.Phil. in Environmental Policy with Economics (Oct-2003-October 2004) University of Cambridge, Department of Land Economy, UK, with scholarship from Cambridge

Commonwealth Trusts and Associated Trusts. Dissertation “Consumer Behavior: The Advertising Counter Effect of Environmental Standards and Eco-labeling.”

3- PhD. Candidate, Department of Economics, Faculty of Economic & Social Studies, University of Khartoum

Other Qualifications and Miscellaneous:

Computer Training Courses Certificate: University of Khartoum Computer Center 1993, with intensive use of computer and some software packages such as SPSS and Minitab during work and study periods.

2- Participant in a Training Workshop on Social Science Research Methodology (both Quantitative and Qualitative tools) organized and financially sponsored by the Organization for Social Science Research in Eastern and Southern Africa (OSSREA), Khartoum, 19-31 September, 2001.

3- Participant in a Training Workshop on “National Health Accounts Training of Trainers”, WHO, Jordan, Amman, 2-12 July 2006, with intensive lecturers delivered by international health economics experts and intensive presentations and discussions.

4- Fellow of the Cambridge Commonwealth Trusts since 2003.

5- University of Khartoum Prize for best academic achievement in the first, fourth and the fifth year.

Teaching and Work Experience:

1- Research Assistant: (Dec. 1996-Nov. 1997), the Economic and Social Research Institute (ESRI) (Khartoum). Duties were questionnaire design, data collection, tabulation and analysis, in addition to participation in the monthly internal seminar series of the institute and contributions to the issuance of the institute quarterly journal.

2- Teaching Assistant: (Oct. 1997-Oct. 2000), Department of Economics, University of Khartoum. Duties were teaching seminars in microeconomics, mathematical economics and econometrics at the undergraduate level. In addition, I have been involved in many administrative works such as examination coordination, invigilation and results finalization.

3- Lecturer in Economics: (Oct. 2000 to present) except the period (Oct. 2003-July 2004): Department of Economics, University of Khartoum, teaching courses in:

- i- Intermediate Macroeconomics
- ii- Environmental Economics
- iii- Natural Resource Economics
- iv- Industrial Economics

Teaching at the Graduate Level

- Environmental Economics to the MSc. Economics students
- Health Care Evaluation and Health Economics Research Methods
- Economics of Environmental Health Hazards in the MSc. Health Economics, University of Khartoum, Health Economics Center
- Health Care Economics and Introductory Health Economic in the P.G. Health Economics, University of Khartoum, Health Economics Center

4- Part-time lecturer in Economics: (2001-2003) Sudan Inter. University, courses taught in:

1. Development Economics
2. International Trade
3. Environmental Economics

5- Secretary of the Department of Economics Board (Jun. 2001-Oct. 2003) University of Khartoum, with many academic and administrative duties.

6- Coordinator of Master of Science and Higher Diploma in Health Economics: (May. 2003-Oct. 2003) and then (Aug. 2004 to present) Health Economics Center, University of Khartoum. Coordinating the implementation of the mentioned degrees.

7- Contribution in the Academic Reform Programme implemented at the Faculty of Economic and Social Studies, University of Khartoum in which I structured and outlined some theoretical and applied economics courses.

8- Acting Director of Health Economics Centre, University of Khartoum (March 2009 to present)

Research and Practical Experience

- 1- MSc. Seminar Paper: An Account to the article (To Slow or not to Slow) by W.D. Nordhaus (1990) with a critical discussion of statement “As Long as we do not know for sure the extent and hazards of global warming, we should not incur costs in order to abate greenhouse gases”, presented as a part of Environmental Economics Course at the Department of Economics, University of Oslo, 1999.
- 2- MSc. Seminar Paper: “On Industrialization and the Big Push” Presented as a part of Development Economics Course at the Department of Economics, University of Oslo, 1999.
- 3- M.Phil. Seminar Paper on “Nicholas Kaldor on Economic Growth and on the Verdoorn Law” Presented as a part of the Module Regional Growth at the Department of Land Economy, University of Cambridge, April 2004.
- 4- Temporary Advisor to the WHO in the position of Member of National Experts Team on the Mission for Evaluation of Sustainability of Sudan Community Directed Treatment with Ivermectin (CDTI). The project has been implemented by the African Programme for Onchocerciasis (River Blindness) (APOC), WHO. The work involved intensive documentary study, surveys and fieldwork for data collection, analysis, results deriving and presentation and finally report writing over the period 10-27/January/2002.
- 5- Temporary Advisor WHO: Member of External Experts Team on the Mission for Evaluation of Sustainability of Community Directed Treatment (Onchocerciasis) with Ivermectin in Nigeria, September 2003. Apologized due to time constraint.
- 6- Assistant Researcher OPEC: Member of an Economic Research Team for a research project on “Assessment of The Private Sector Development in Sudan” 2003. The head of the research team was Dr. Fadia Khalil Hassan, Head Dept. of Economics, University of Khartoum.
- 7- Discussion Paper on “Economics of Environmental Regulation of the Build, Operate and Transfer Projects in Sudan” presented at a training workshop on the Build, Operate and Transfer System Projects, organized by the Academy of Economic and Financial Studies, Federal Ministry of Finance and National Economy, Khartoum, Jan. 2006.
- 8- Chapter on “the Experience of Some Regional Economic Integrations” as a part from the report “The Impacts on Sudan Economy as a Result of Joining the Regional Economic Groups” Ministry of Finance and National Economy, Khartoum, 2007.
- 9- Member of a Technical Committee for the conference on the Post Conflict Sudan organized jointly by the Faculty of Economic and Social Studies, Ministry of Finance and National Economy in collaboration with the World Bank during Sept. 2006. My work involved summary of the Papers presented as well as contribution to final report on the delivered papers and discussions.